Duty of Disclosure

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) (the Act), you have a duty of disclosure. You are required before you enter into, renew, vary, extend or reinstate your Policy, to tell us everything you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is a matter that is relevant to our decision whether to insure you, and anyone else to be insured under the Policy, and if so on what terms.

- You do not have to tell us about any matter:
 - That diminishes the risk,
 - That is common knowledge,
 - That we know or should know in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer, or
 - Which we indicate we do not want to know.
- If you do not tell us

If you do not comply with your duty of disclosure we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or cancel your Policy. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Privacy

QBE has a Privacy Policy that describes how we collect, disclose, store and use your information, how you can access or correct it and how to make a complaint. QBE may share your information with other companies within the QBE Group or with other service providers, some of which may be
